ADD:

No direct or indirect contact between the defendant and any current or previously known Amazon employees in seller support or investigations; this provision does not prohibit others, such as the defendant's clients, from contacting Amazon through normal business channels and programs for legitimate business purposes.

CAUSE

In late March of 2021, I received notice Mr. Rosenberg had sent an email to Jason Noggle. Mr. Noggle is a person with Amazon that the defendant had contact with during the alleged conduct in the instant offense and has been identified as a potential witness in the case. The contact was direct via email, and Mr. Rosenberg relayed his intent was a genuine concern for Mr. Noggle's safety. Mr. Noggle perceived the message as a veiled threat. Mr. Rosenberg was addressed through defense counsel and reminded if there are genuine concerns, they should be relayed through defense counsel and direct or otherwise indirect contact is not appropriate.

Over the course of the following months, the parties worked together to formulate the above-proposed condition that we believe will further clarify who Mr. Rosenberg may and may not have contact with, while still enabling him to continue in his consulting business. I respectfully request the Court modify the defendant's bond as indicated above.

I consulted with Assistant United States Attorneys, Steven Masada and Nicholas Manheim, as well as defense counsel, Peter Offenbecher, and they concur with my recommendation.

I swear under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 16th day of June, 2021.
